Subject: Contract discussions

David,

This is a confirmation that the Ministry of the Environment (MOE), through me, and the Umansky Network have had conversations regarding MOE's intentions to retain the Umansky Network under a contract for the period between now and May 12th, 2006. Specifically, the contract would be to arrange for meeting with members of Congress and their staffs, administration officials and non-governmental organizations for the Minister of the Environment and similar communications with U.S. news media. As needed and directed by the Ministry of the Environment, make follow-up calls to the offices of members of Congress to help arrange meetings for the Minister of the Environment. Help raise awareness of the Minister's visits to Washington, DC among Members of Congress and environmental and health leaders in the Washington, DC area.

In order to provide those services, the Umansky Network is directed to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

The contract should not exceed $40,000 (Cdn), plus reasonable expenses as per the Government of Ontario's guidelines, not including the cost of organizing the media breakfast and registration costs under the Foreign Agents registration Act. Out of pocket expenses will not exceed the Government of Ontario guidelines.

This statement of intention is subject to securing all necessary approvals in the Ministry of the Environment under the Government of Ontario's procurement rules.
